race to be conducted in the city May 31 is of much interest to local sports, owing to the fact that a local runner, John D. Nolan, Jr., has entered. Nolan is the son of the famous John Nolan who has had a brilliant record on the cinder path, and his son is falling into his footsteps. Nolan, Jr., came in second in the race last year and he has been training hard during the last few weeks. He captured the first prize in the big race at the Pinochle club field day and also last season was victor in several events held at Plainfield last summer.

Struck by Auto.

Peter Boisse was struck by a passing auto at the curve on Norwich avenue near the Lisbon bridge Wednesday evening about 6.45 o'clock. Mr. Boisse had been riding in a team and jumper off and was making a retreat to the sidewalk when the machine rounded the curve. At the point where Mr. Bolsse was struck there is a stone wall on the resident side of the street. The driver, Mr. Rabinovitch, of Norwich, applied his brakes, but owing to the slippery condition of the street the shippery condition of the street the machine skidded, thus making the accident unavoidable. The victim was picked up and rushed to the Backus hospital in Mr. Rabinovitch's machine. Blood was streaming from his nose, mouth and ears and he was uncon-
